FY2025 Application Guidelines for Dispatching GIR Young Researchers Abroad

As an effort to financially support faculty members who take concrete actions toward the establishment of an international collaborative research platform, which is intended to continuously increase the number of internationally co-authored papers, the "J-PEAKS: Program for Forming Japan's Peak Research Universities" is being used to support the overseas dispatch of our faculty members. In conjunction with this, we will also support the overseas dispatch of young GIR researchers. We are recruiting young GIR researchers for the 2025 academic year.

(1)Purpose

In order to continuously increase the number of internationally co-authored papers, young researchers of this university will be sent to overseas universities and research institutes. And they will be supported to conduct preparatory work, research meetings, and joint research work (experiments, theoretical analysis, computer analysis, etc.) with those universities and research institutes so as to establish international joint research.

②Requirements/Qualifications

A person who falls under any of the following.

- [1] GIR Assistant Professor (fixed-term)
- [2] GIR Assistant Professor

3Dispatch Term

About 2 weeks to 3 months

(Flexible depending on the details of the plan, but limited to the scope of the contract term.)

4 Dispatch Location

Overseas universities and research institutes, overseas corporate research institutes, etc.

⑤Support Details

Round trip economy airfare, actual local accommodation cost within the University Regulations, and daily allowance under the University Regulations.

(The daily allowance may be reduced depending on the budget situation.)

6 Submitted Documents

FY2025 Application Form for Dispatching GIR Young Researchers Abroad (As a general rule, it must have been agreed with the dispatch location.)

7Submission Destination

ktakada@cc.tuat.ac.jp University Research Administration Center: Takada

®Deadline

May 30, 2025

About 10 (We may reduce the number of adoptions depending on the budget situation.)

Support Requirement

- Do not receive salary from the other party during the period of dispatch.
- As a general rule, the maximum amount of overseas travel support expenses permitted as a GIR is about three months.
- For accommodation, ask the other party to introduce you to a guest house owned by their university, and consult with them so that you can keep it cheap.
- Teachers in charge of educational affairs should apply only after obtaining the approval of the host teacher and the graduate school (department) or the faculty (department) concurrently in order to ensure that there is no impediment to their work.

After confirming the applicants' application details, their ability to carry out research activities at the destination and their environment, and making appropriate adjustments so as not to exceed the budget limit, the University Research Administration Center (URAC) conducts selection and we will finalize the overseas dispatcher with the approval of the Dean of GIR Institute.
